

Tiny Tin Troops Ship Counters 1/600th scale

All laser printed on high quality card. Best mounted on heavier card for play.

AN1 : Peloponnesian Wars	Contains two fleets (60 ships) on four A5 sheets
Athens and Allies	3 squadrons each of 4 Fast 3's, 2 squadrons each of 4 Cataphract 3's, 1 squadron of 4 Aphract 3's & 2 squadrons each of 3 Pentekontors. 30 ships in all.
Persia and/or Ionian Greeks	5 squadrons each of 4 Cataphract 3's, 1 squadron of 4 Aphract 3's & 2 squadrons each of 3 Pentekontors. 30 ships in all.
AN2 : Punic Wars Set 1	Contains two fleets (41 ships) on four A5 sheets
Carthage	6 squadrons each of 3 4's, 2 squadrons each of 3 5's (one of which is a flagship), 1 squadron of 4 Heavy 3's. 22 ships in all.
Republican Rome	3 squadrons each of 4 5's, 2 squadrons each of 3 Heavy 3's & 1 flagship 6. 19 ships in all
AN3 : Punic Wars Set 2	Contains two fleets (38 ships) on four A5 sheets.
Rome only used the Corvus (a boarding plank with a big spike) for a few years but it is a popular feature with wargamers. I've also made an alternative Carthaginian fleet with a higher proportion of 5's and larger 4's.
Carthage	3 squadrons each of 3 5's (one of which is a flagship), 2 squadrons each of 3 4's (larger than the 4's in Set AN2), 1 squadron of 4 Heavy 3's. 19 ships in all.
Republican Rome	3 squadrons each of 4 5's (all with Corvus), 2 squadrons each of 3 Heavy 3's & 1 flagship 6. 19 ships in all.
AN4 : Cypriot Salamis 306BC	Contains two fleets (55 ships) on six A5 sheets.
Two fleets that represent the early stages of the development of the 'Polyreme'.
Demetrios Poliorcetes	2 7-bank ships, 4 6's, 2 squadrons each of 3 5's, 2 squadrons each of 4 large 4's, 1 squadron of 4 Heavy 3's and 1 squadron of 4 fast 3's. 28 ships in all.
Ptolemy I	2 squadrons of 4 fast 4's, 1 squadron of 4 4's with a small catapult and 1 squadron of 3 heavier 4's with tower and catapult, 1 squadron of 4 heavy 5's, 2 squadrons of fast 5's (one of 4 ships, the other 3) and one 6 as a flagship. 27 ships in all.
AN5 : Chios 201BC	Contains two fleets (60 ships) on six A5 sheets.
Two fleets that represent the later development of the 'Polyreme' & Phillip's use of large numbers of small vessels.
Phillip V of Macedon	2 8-bank ships, 3 7-bank ships, 4 6's, 6 5's and 20 light Lemboi and Hemioliai. 35 ships in all.
Attalos of Pergammon & Allies	A 9-bank ship, 2 7-bank ships, 4 6's, 8 5's, 5 4's & 3 Trihemioliai. 23 ships in all.
Also included are one each 13-bank ship & 10-bank ship. Neither fleet included such large vessels but others at the time did.
AN6 : Actium 31BC	Contains two fleets (57 ships) on six A5 sheets.
Two fleets that represent the last major naval battle of Classical times.
Anthony	Anthony's main fleet : 2 10-bank ships, 2 8-bank ships & 8 5's
	Cleopatra's squadron : 1 9-bank ship, 3 5's & 5 4's. 21 ships in all.
Octavian	1 7-bank flagship, 3 6's, 12 5's, 4 3's and 16 Lemboi. 36 ships in all.

Tiny Tin Troops Ship Counters 1/1200th scale

All laser printed on high quality card. Best mounted on heavier card for play.

ANS1 : Peloponnesian Wars	Contains two fleets (96 ships) on two A5 sheets
Athens and Allies	5 squadrons each of 4 Fast 3's, 2 squadrons each of 4 Cataphract 3's, 2 squadron of 4 Aphract 3's & 4 squadrons each of 3 Pentekontors. 48 ships in all.
Persia and/or Ionian Greeks	6 squadrons each of 4 Cataphract 3's, 3 squadrons of 4 Aphract 3's & 4 squadrons each of 3 Pentekontors. 48 ships in all.
ANS1 : Punic Wars Set 1	Contains two fleets (96 ships) on two A5 sheets
Carthage	6 squadrons each of 4 4's, 2 squadrons each of 3 5's (one of which is a flagship), 1 squadron of 4 Heavy 3's. 22 ships in all.
Republican Rome	3 squadrons each of 4 5's, 2 squadrons each of 3 Heavy 3's & 1 flagship 6. 19 ships in all
ANS1 : Punic Wars Set 2	Contains two fleets (96 ships) on two A5 sheets
Rome only used the Corvus (a boarding plank with a big spike) for a few years but it is a popular feature with wargamers. I've also made an alternative Carthaginian fleet with a higher proportion of 5's and larger 4's.
Carthage	3 squadrons each of 3 5's (one of which is a flagship), 2 squadrons each of 3 4's (larger than the 4's in Set AN2), 1 squadron of 4 Heavy 3's. 19 ships in all.
Republican Rome	3 squadrons each of 4 5's (all with Corvus), 2 squadrons each of 3 Heavy 3's & 1 flagship 6. 19 ships in all.
ANS1 : Cypriot Salamis 306BC	Contains two fleets (96 ships) on two A5 sheets
Two fleets that represent the early stages of the development of the 'Polyreme'.
Demetrios Poliorcetes	2 7-bank ships, 4 6's, 2 squadrons each of 3 5's, 2 squadrons each of 4 large 4's, 1 squadron of 4 Heavy 3's and 1 squadron of 4 fast 3's. 28 ships in all.
Ptolemy I	2 squadrons of 4 fast 4's, 1 squadron of 4 4's with a small catapult and 1 squadron of 3 heavier 4's with tower and catapult, 1 squadron of 4 heavy 5's, 2 squadrons of fast 5's (one of 4 ships, the other 3) and one 6 as a flagship. 27 ships in all.
ANS1 : Chios 201BC	Contains two fleets (96 ships) on two A5 sheets
Two fleets that represent the later development of the 'Polyreme' & Phillip's use of large numbers of small vessels.
Phillip V of Macedon	2 8-bank ships, 3 7-bank ships, 4 6's, 6 5's and 20 light Lemboi and Hemioliai. 35 ships in all.
Attalos of Pergammon & Allies	A 9-bank ship, 2 7-bank ships, 4 6's, 8 5's, 5 4's & 3 Trihemioliai. 23 ships in all.
Also included are one each 13-bank ship & 10-bank ship. Neither fleet included such large vessels but others at the time did.
ANS1 : Actium 31BC	Contains two fleets (96 ships) on two A5 sheets
Two fleets that represent the last major naval battle of Classical times.
Anthony	Anthony's main fleet : 2 10-bank ships, 2 8-bank ships & 8 5's
	Cleopatra's squadron : 1 9-bank ship, 3 5's & 5 4's. 21 ships in all.
Octavian	1 7-bank flagship, 3 6's, 12 5's, 4 3's and 16 Lemboi. 36 ships in all.

Tiny Tin Troops Card Buildings Range 1/300th scale

Laser printed on high quality card and including detailed instructions

BS01 : Medeival Village	3 sheets of buildings plus one sheet of walls, fences and roads. A mixture of timber, half-timbered and stone buildings. 18 buildings in all, including a church and manor house.
BS02 : English Civil War Village	3 sheets of buildings with bases and enclosures. Designed to fit with the many basing systems that use 30x30-60x60 bases. 9 buildings in all, including a Manor and Church.	